Sukadeva Gosvami said to Parikshit Maharaja, “O King in the age of Kali; religion, truthfulness, cleanliness, tolerance, mercy, duration of life, physical strength and memory will all diminish day by day because of the powerful influence of Kali.”

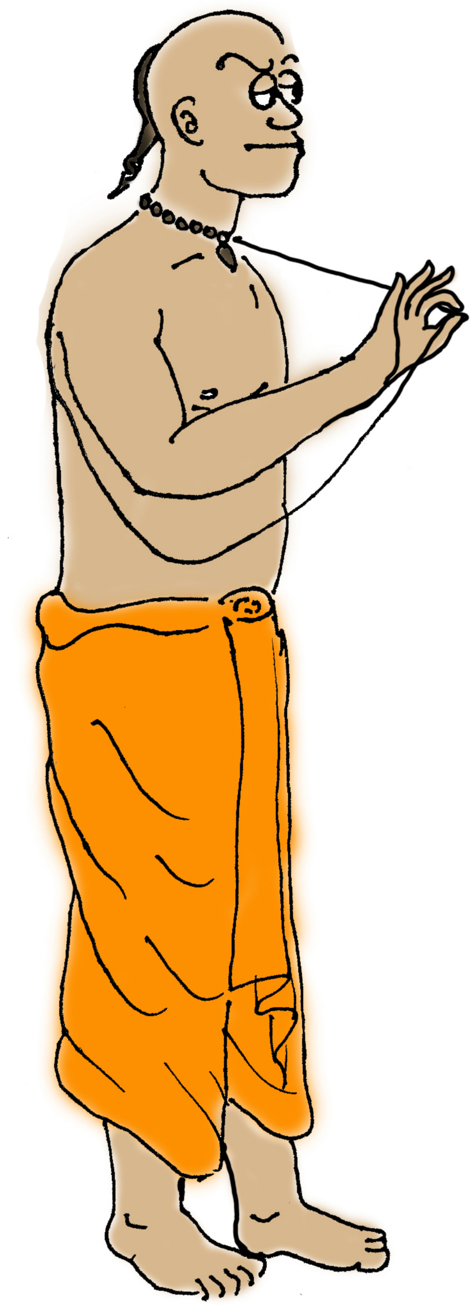

In Kali-yuga, wealth alone will be considered the sign of a man's good birth, proper behaviour and fine qualities.

As the earth thus becomes crowded with a corrupt population, whoever among any of the social classes shows himself to be the strongest will gain political power and hypocrisy will be accepted as virtue.

People will be duplicitous, hypocritical and quarrelsome.

A man will be known as a brahmana just by his wearing a thread.
One who is very clever at juggling words will be considered a learned scholar.
Spiritual hermitages will be no different from mundane houses.

A sacred place will be taken to consist of no more than a reservoir of water located at a distance.

Men and women will live together merely because of superficial attraction. Marriage will be arranged simply by verbal agreement. Beauty will be thought to depend on one's hairstyle.

Principles of religion will be observed only for the sake of reputation.

Filling the belly will become the goal of life

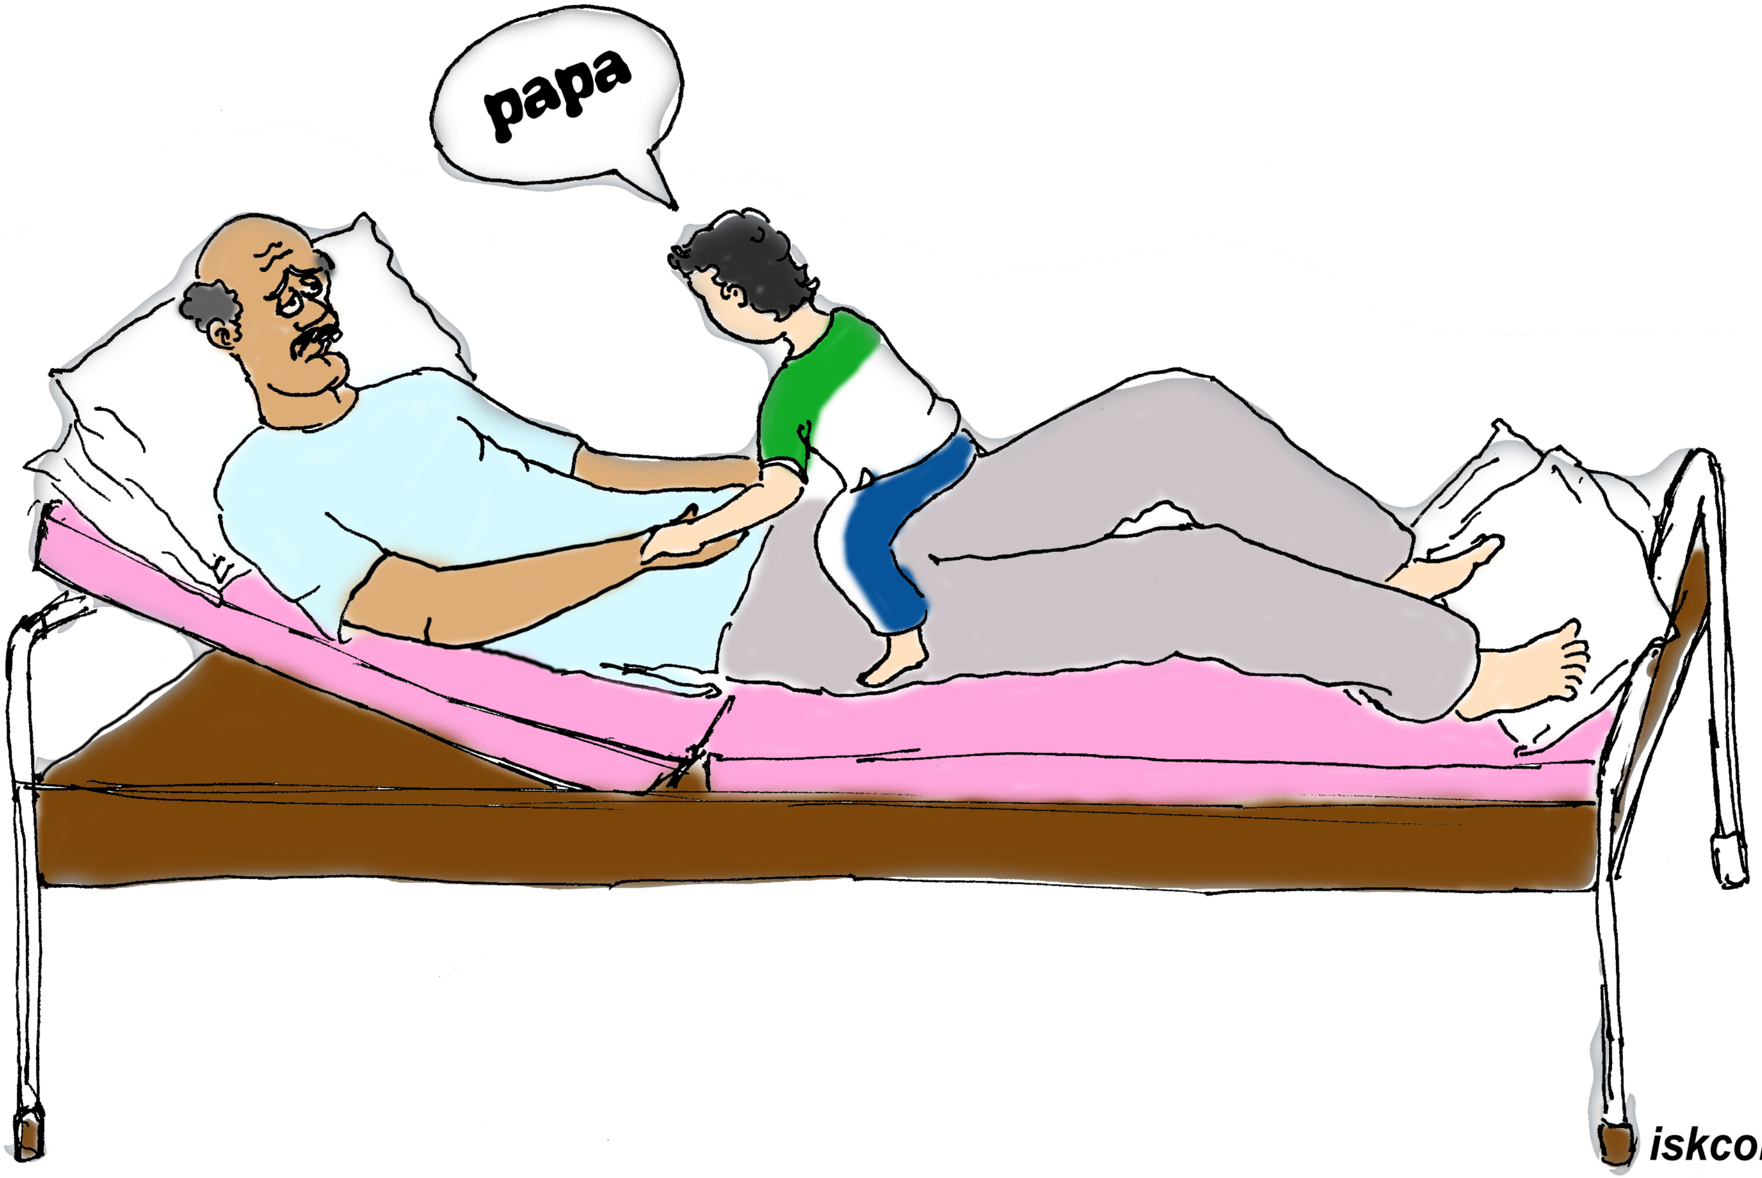

Harassed by famine and excessive taxes, people will resort to eating leaves, roots, flesh, wild honey, fruits, flowers and seeds. Struck by drought, they will become completely ruined.

They will be further tormented by quarrel, thirst, hunger, disaster and severe anxiety.

The maximum duration of life for human beings in Kali-yuga will become fifty years.

He who can maintain a family will be regarded as an expert man.
Family ties will extend no further than the immediate bonds of marriage.

By the time the age of Kali ends, the bodies of all creatures will be greatly reduced in size. Cows will be like goats.

At that time, the Supreme Personality of Godhead will appear on the earth. He will rescue eternal religion. Lord Vishnu, the Supreme Soul of all, appears to protect the principles of religion and to relieve His saintly devotees.

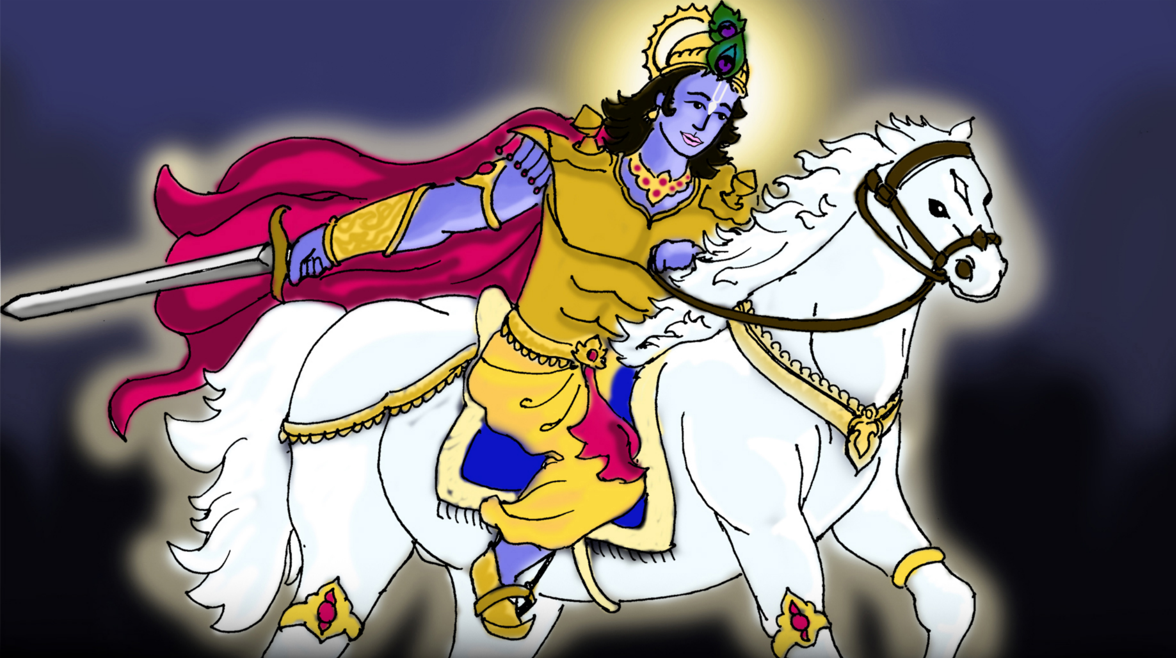

Lord Kalki will appear in the home of the most eminent Brahmana of Sambhala village, the great soul Visnuyasha and Sumatidevi

Lord Kalki, the Lord of the universe, will mount His swift horse Devadatta and with a sword in hand will travel over the earth exhibiting His mystic opulences and special qualities of Godhead. Displaying His unequaled effulgence and riding with great speed, He will kill by the millions those thieves who have dared to dress as kings.

When the supreme Lord will have appeared as Kalki and all the imposter kings will have been killed, Satya-yuga will begin and all the residents will once again feel the breeze carrying the most sacred fragrance of sandalwood paste and other decorations of Lord Vasudeva and their minds will threby become transcendentally pure.

In this age of Kali, anyone who chants the holy name i.e. the Hare Krsna Mahamantra, can very easily cross over the vast ocean of material existence and go back home back to godhead.
